Protecting nature in games of probability

One of the most fascinating scientific exchanges in human history , , ,

“I’m convinced that God does not play dice with the universe.”

—Albert Einstein commenting on quantum physics

“Stop telling God what to do with His dice.”

—Niels Bohr’s response to Einstein’s feeling on quantum physics

— “Quantum physics forces us to acknowledge more of the fullness of reality that is happening in both nature and ourselves.”

— Jed Anderson, Creator, EnviroAI

Harnessing the expanding powers of artificial intelligence and quantum computing/sensing technologies to simplify the protection of nature—one commercialized application at a time. That’s EnviroAI.
