Our customers convert environmental data into money ... with the help of artificial intelligence.

This conversion will increase further with Ceres AI's "The Generator" (see chart below).

Ceres AI is becoming almost an unfair competitive information advantage—although the advantage is available to everyone even if you cannot afford it (please call us for need-based discounts)

Ceres AI recently published "The Benchmarker". Ceres is happy to announce that the release of "The Generator" is well ahead of schedule. The anticipated release has been moved up from April 10th to March 21st.
